Ian Paul is well placed to respond to contemporary concerns about the interpretation of the Bible. How much is it a matter of individual opinion or speculation? Are some parts of the Bible more authoritative than others? How much is the Bible's meaning determined by social context? Can God still speak to us through the Scriptures? Ian will also be responding to questions from the floor.

Ian is a blogger, writer, and theologian. He is Honorary Assistant Professor at the University of Nottingham and an Associate Minister at St Nic's Church Nottingham. He is a member of General Synod and of the Archbishops' Council. His blog and website is www.psephizo.com

Venue: Bishop Hannington Memorial Church,
Neville Avenue, Hove BN3 7NH

The conference is free for CDEF members; £5 for non-members
