

Chichester Diocesan Evangelical Fellowship 2017 Spring Conference

09.30 (for 10.00) – 13.00 Saturday 11th March 2017

“Elephant in the Room”

Things we don't talk easily about in church

The Conference is designed to explore a Biblical approach to problems that Christians can face in their lives, yet which may rarely be spoken about in church. It will start with a Bible exposition followed by seminars with an understanding leader, where confidential sharing and reflection can take place in the light of the Word of God.

at St Andrew's Church, Weald Drive, Furnace Green, Crawley RH10 6NU

Conference Programme

- 09:30 Registration. Tea and Coffee available on arrival
- 10.00 Opening Worship and Prayer
- 10:15 Bible Teaching by Revd Dr Andy Angel – Vicar of St Andrew's Church, Burgess Hill
- 10:45 Your choice of Seminar (see below)
- 11:45 Tea and Coffee
- 12.15 Holy Communion including Epilogue
- 13.00 Finish – Tea and coffee will be available for those wishing to bring a packed lunch

Seminar Topics:

- 1 My faith and singleness
- 2 My faith and my unbelieving spouse
- 3 My faith and divorce
- 4 My faith and growing older
- 5 My faith and depression
- 6 My faith and gay family members
- 7 How can we support and encourage people who live with challenging issues?

Public Transport:

St Andrew's is a five minute bus ride from Crawley Bus Station (adjacent to Crawley Rail Station) on the frequent Metrobus Route 2 travelling towards K2 Leisure Centre. Alight at the Charcoal Burner.

Car Parking:

Parking is available on-site and in neighbouring streets.

To Book a Seminar and for further information please contact:

Robert Monroe 07754 888630

or email: rbrtmonroe@googlemail.com

You are also welcome to attend without prebooking and choose a seminar at registration. However, priority for seminar places will be given to those who book in advance.

Cost:

Free for CDEF Members. £5.00 for non-members. Please pay on arrival.

www.chichesterdef.org.uk